

A large red puzzle piece is centered in the frame, surrounded by many white puzzle pieces. The pieces are scattered and overlapping, creating a textured background. The red piece is the focal point, and the text is printed on it in white.

FACED WITH INCREASING
CHALLENGES?

We understand and we can help.

Solutions for Non-Profits

Non-profit organizations face ever increasing challenges. We understand these challenges and provide guidance and advice with the Close Personal Attention that our clients have come to expect. With over thirty years of experience working with non-profits, WC&S has acquired an in-depth knowledge of the unique requirements of organizations like yours. Equipped with this industry knowledge and experience we provide our clients with unparalleled service that is budget friendly.

Our goal is to help non-profit organizations fulfill not only their compliance obligations but to help them with plans that will enable them to fulfill their mission in the future. We currently provide Circular A-133 Single Audits, financial statement audits and reviews as well as tax return services for numerous non-profit organizations.

Additionally we provide these services:

- Employee benefit plan audits
- Board presentations
- Performance measurement recommendations
- Budgeting
- Accounting services for non profits lacking in-house capabilities
- Review of accounting software systems
